

David Haury Takes New Position

David Haury has recently resigned as Director of Fiscal Operations with the Kansas Historical Society. He is taking on the responsibilities as Director of the Bureau of Archives and History at the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission. His new job will be centered in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

David has been with the Kansas Historical Society for the past 15 years. He indicates that he has truly enjoyed his time with the Society, stating, "It has been a privilege to be part of one of the best History programs in the country..."

David will be missed. He has our thanks for his many contributions to the State finance community. His friends and colleagues wish him well in his new endeavor.