

GASB Seeks Information
On
Reporting for Intangible Assets

The Governmental Accounting Standards Board (GASB) is gathering information about existing practices for reporting intangible assets, such as right-of-way easements, development easements and software. The survey, which should take 30 minutes to complete, is designed to help the board understand whether guidance is conflicting and in need of clarification.

Click here to complete the survey online.

The deadline is Nov. 30.