

GUEST LECTURER

LUNCH SPEAKER: "Ethics; Understanding Our Critical Role in Setting the Tone in Government" Our speaker is Bobby Derrick; Deputy Director (retired) for Corporate Resources Administrative Services at the DFAS Headquarters in Indianapolis, Indiana. Bobby has also served as the National President of AGA and has held numerous Regional and Chapter positions for the Indianapolis AGA Chapter. Bobby has also served with the American Society of Military Comptrollers (ASMC) and the Society for Government Meeting Planners (SGMP). Bobby has faced the bureaucratic battles to make everything look good, even when there were problems. He will share his thoughts and insights on our role government and how ethics is such an important element.
